

What is my College of Record?

Saddleback College is part of the two-college South Orange County Community College District which also includes Irvine Valley College. You need to complete only one application to attend either or both colleges. By completing this Saddleback application, your college of record will be designated as Saddleback and we will service your requests. However, if you are concurrently enrolled at IVC, you may be referred there for some services.